Location

The Convention is being held in the garden city of Bangalore located at a height of over 3,000 feet (914.4 m) above sea level, a demographically diverse city, Bangalore is a major economic and cultural hub and the second-fastest growing major metropolis in India. Bangalore is India's third most populous city and fifth-most populous urban agglomeration. Bangalore is known as the Silicon Valley of India because of its role as the nation's leading Information Technology (IT) exporter. The city is amongst the top ten preferred entrepreneurial locations in the world.

The weather is the city's best feature, with pleasant summers and bearable winters. Bangalore has a moderate climate throughout the year due to its elevation. It is also blessed with a large number of lakes and parks within the city. Tropical cloths are requested throughout the year. Light woollens can be worn during winter season. The uniqueness of Bangalore can be attributed to the open minded progressive nature of its citizens.

The venue will be the Bangalore International Exhibition Centre (BIEC), Bangalore (India). There are numerous 'Not-to-be-missed' sights in Bangalore like the magnificent Vidhana Soudha, sprawling Cubbon Park, Colorful Lalbagh and the industrial and technological museum.

Background

India is endowed with large mineral resources, especially of iron ore, bauxite, coal, base metals, noble metals, and diamonds. India's mineral sector has a potential to add USD 210 – 250 billion to the GDP by deploying state of the art exploration technologies. For achieving a high manufacturing growth rate as envisaged in the New Manufacturing Policy and also the emphasis on infrastructure, the mining sector has to grow faster. Government has envisaged to enhance the contribution of mineral sector by 1% to the GDP from the current level of 0.76%. To achieve these ambitious objectives, entire value chain of the mineral sector starting from reconnaissance, exploration, mining and beneficiation and downstream sectors have been streamlined so as to attract investments from both domestic as well as international investors. Government has already taken key policy initiatives like passage of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Amendment Act 2015, initiation of auctioning process of mining licences for minerals like iron ore, bauxite, limestone and gold etc. It is also encouraging miners to increase production which would generate more employment in the country by introducing the state-of-the-art technology.

In order to attract investment and technology FIMI is organizing a three-days Convention on "Mining, Exploration & Trade Show from 14-16 September, 2017 at Bangalore International Exhibition Centre (BIEC), Bangalore with the support of PDAC. It provides a unique opportunity for various stakeholders involved in the mining value chain – policy makers, exploration agencies, mining companies, regulatory agencies, technologists, economists, investors including foreign companies – for intense deliberations and discussions. The event is sponsored by Ministry of Mines.
